

Ms. Mehnaz Khurshid Gardezi is working as Communications Specialist with additional responsibilities of Deputy Director, SAARC Energy Centre (SEC). She has years of experience in strategic vision, innovative management and communications, spanning the fields of humanitarian action, legal assistance, migration support/ services, energy and environment related programmes and activities including campaigns.

In her current role, Ms. Gardezi is effectively spearheading internal and external communication and coordination with stakeholders in SAARC Member States and beyond. As a focal communication person, she provides substantive support to all programmes, events and strategic partnerships with regional and international organizations. Prior to her joining SEC, Ms. Gardezi worked with national, regional and international organizations including United Nations agency, International Organization for Migration (IOM).

Ms. Gardezi holds a Master degree in Information Technology and is currently pursuing Bachelor of Laws.