

Bio Summary:

Ms. Kiran Gautam has completed Doctor of Philosophy in Mechanical Engineering with her research entitled “Energy Demand and Supply Analysis of Nepal” from Institute of Engineering, Punchwork Campus, Tribhuvan University, Nepal. She has served as a civil servant for last 16 years in different Capacity in the Government of Nepal. Before joining SAARC Energy Centre, she was with Water and Energy Commission Secretariat, Government of Nepal in the position of Senior Divisional Engineer, where her responsibilities were more related to planning and policy making in the sector of energy. Her areas of expertise are energy planning, energy modelling, renewable energy and energy efficiency.

With almost 20 years of experience, she has worked at various capacities for national and international organizations including public and private sectors. At present she is at the SAARC Energy Centre working as a Program Leader (Energy Trade).